Hi Jeff, I guess you just proved my point. I know CW but without additional knowledge I have no idea what the above means. SRI? HV? QSQ? ES? What's the 'Q' signal for "wait while I look for my 'Q' signals book"? And I'm supposed to do this with someone who doesn't speak English? ... think I'll just stick with my broken Spanish and Japanese.

MORSE nuclear bombs?

Methinks you've been reading too many r.r.a.p posts...:-)

Exactly what relevance does that have to the issue of whether hams should be required to learn Morse Code before using other modes on HF?
